A MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1995

At graduation time across our land, adults often face a dilemma. They want to fully believe in the pass-the-torch theme they are bound to hear. This theme calls for college and high school graduates to take on the symbolic torch of responsibility and carry it forward to better the world.

However, many of these same adults may have just recently asked those timeless questions:

> What is happening to our young people? They disrespect their elders, they disobey their parents. They ignore the law. They riot in the streets inflamed with crazy ideas. Their morals are decaying. What is to become of them?"

This somewhat pessimistic view was given by Plato 2400 years ago. Assuming that the character of young people has been deteriorating for 2399 years, it is simply a wonder that civilization exists at all.

What will become of them? Torch bearers or barbarians? Whatever their true feelings, adults seem to undergo a transformation of perception in the month of June. Faced with the inevitability of graduation, students begin to appear more responsible, caring, knowledgeable, and mature. Cynics may say this is simply wishful thinking or an attempt to make the best of a poor situation by injecting a self-fulfilling prophecy.

Optimists like myself can look at our class of 1995 as evidence that the new perception is in fact the way it is. What happens each June is that adults see past the perennial disguise of rebellion, exuberance, passion and inexperience to the more positive nature of youth. Youth that over generations has made societies work despite a world that is more complex and at-risk than Plato could have ever imagined.

The class of 1995 in particular is ready. You have proven that you are bright, inquisitive, energetic; and you have good leaders. This class is characterized by involvement. You initiated coalitions with other schools on social issues, and Shelley and Allie have represented students at the regional and state level of state government.

As a group you have distinguished your class by its high degree of caring. Your efforts around the AIDS exhibition and the "inter-generational" dance you sponsored for the junior high are prime examples. You have cared for each other and for others in exemplary ways.

You give me 54 reasons to be optimistic about the future. When I think about how far some of you have come, I'm impressed. I thought several of you would never grow as much as you have. Your class proves Plato to be wrong. Certainly you are more ready to make a more positive difference in the world than I was at your age. I am not quite ready to pass the torch to anyone yet, but I will be proud to share it with the class of 1995.

Sincerely,

William L. Foye

Dedicated to Mrs. Laurie Sampson

The 1995 Anchor is lovingly dedicated to Mrs. Laurie Sampson. Mrs. Sampson is a member of the Guidance staff who has been a part of our class since the day we crossed the bridge. Mrs. Sampson has played an intricate part in our development through Manchester High School. From scheduling classes to assisting in the ripening of our futures, Mrs. Sampson has been there for each one of us with a smile on her face. She is not only a mother figure to some, but she is a friend to all. Mrs. Sampson knows everybody's name without having to think twice.

We thank Mrs. Sampson for her inspiring exuberance and all the hard work she has put into making our high school years enjoyable. Her sparkle has greatly influenced our lives.

Thanks, Laurie!

TENTH REUNION

It's the year 2005, all the invitations were sent out but no-one showed up, not even the one person we expected!

It's the year 2005, all the invitations were sent out but no-one showed up, not even the one person we expected!
Angier Ames- was too busy debating Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Zentner.
Patrick Baker- it was hunting season.
Stacey Barnes- it was time to make the donuts.
Joel Brunner- had to play with the Boston Pops.
Melissa Burnham- couldn't find anything to wear because her sister took all of her clothes.
Jeremy Campbell- was still looking for Josh Silverstein.
Allen Chamberlain- went to Mr. Costello's house instead.
Meg Clement- was too busy being a groupie.
David Colarusso- is still in the gym shooting hoops.
Bill Collins- doodled all over the invitation.
Gina DeFelice- wouldn't come because it wasn't being held at Burger King.
Matthew DeFelice- it was on a Monday.
Kevin Delaney- Kobsy's side of the brain didn't want to go.
Alex Demeter- was on tour with the Beach Boys.
Katie Dott- was still trying to "find" herself.
Dan Downey- had tickets to a concert.
Matthew Elliott- was studying Botany in Vermont.
Erica Frontiero- was still doing City Year.
Michael Gates- the chain fell off his bike.
Josh Gates- was being held up in the bathroom at Loews Cinema.
Jamie Gates and Kelly Gavin - were in Beverly Farms.
Michelle Gorden- had to play in the band.
Josh Harvey- didn't remember where it was.
Robert Hatcher- no-one could understand his R.S.V.P.
Valerie Herdman- became a G.L.O.W. chic.
Faith Herrick- was still asking for her title from Kevin.
Dan Holden- was opening up a restaurant with Sal.
Chris Kobs- was on the boulevard.
Shelley Lengieza- was training to be a leader in Bangladesh.
Forrester Liddle- was studying for his doctoral exam.
David McDonough- was still a champion swimmer and didn't want to get out of the pool.
Jeff McIlroy- was lost at Koeplin's.
Jessie Mirak- couldn't figure out what time it was.
Jessie Munro- was finishing the mural from the class of '93.
Mentor Mustafa- was still trying to figure out why Mr. Averill would pass out bad writing.
Blerina Omari- bought the Coffee Cup and now she's the boss.
Jon Oro- is being recruited by the Miami Heat.
Tony Passanisi- was on the beach.
Andy Rydzewski- was still trying to clean his pool.
Christina Sabanty- had an audition for Pinnochio.
Tony Saco- was still fighting with Josh over why they were in Chinatown.
Sian Senecal- went to South America instead.
Eli Slater- couldn't find the perfect tux.
Eric Smith- got stuck in a snow bank.
Jean Spencer- hooked up with Gordon Gano and hasn't been seen since.
Allie Taylor- a decade wasn't enough time to get ready.
Amanda Tracey- was head baker at Stop & Shop.
Frannie Wetterlow- was at Al's house, of course.
Marc Wiedenmann- was vacationing with Coach York.
Mary Wood- was starring in "Piddler on the Roof".
Mike Young- pulled the Forrest Gump and hasn't been seen since he ran through Iowa.

This Is Now . . .

School years are unforgetable. In student memory there will be forever some aspects that will never go away. First, starting high school. Meeting EK and becoming best friends. Going in V in a class trip with EK, EF, AH, BO and JC. Last day with EF. Staying in Greece with AM and EM. The fight with T. Starting work and meeting KC. Halloween party with HD, LM, NM. Thinking of going to A. Thanks to all of you and good luck. Love you all!

DECA

MANCHESTER DECA had an outstanding year for 1994-1995. James Hemmings won our first national trophy in Detroit and we will never forget the Ren Cen, ice cream profits, permission to "go outside" and the Cobo Arena. Our team this year at 62 is the largest ever and we continue to be number one in the State!

After 38 years, as a teacher and coach at Manchester Jr.-Sr. High School Mr. Herbert Schlegel is retiring . . .

Mr. Schlegel has been an incredible asset to the students as well as faculty at MHS. He is not only an outstanding teacher and coach but an individual as well who, brings motivation into the classroom while making it feel like home. He enlivens classes through his knowledge of sports, astronomy, linguistics, the Civil War, car engines, and other important life experiences. His opinion of students is one which we take great pride in valuing because he is so dedicated to his work. Mr. Schlegel has brought an increased knowledge of life, (as well as some math) to MHS. We will be sad to see him leave and wish him the best of luck. Mr. Schlegel, Thank you.

TO MISH. . . . . .LOVE ROBERT:

"THE WIND SITS IN THE SHOULDER OF YOUR SAIL,
MY BLESSING WITH THEE.

LOOK THOU CHARACTER. GIVE THY THOUGHTS IN TONGUE, NOR ANY UNPROPORTION'D THOUGHT HIS ACT.

THOSE FRIENDS THOU HAST, AND THEIR ADOPTION TRIED,
GRAPPLE THEM UNTO THY SOUL WITH HOOPS OF STEEL,
BUT DO NOT DULL THY PALM WITH ENTERTAINMENT.

GIVE EVERY MAN THY EAR,
BUT FEW THY VOICE,
TAKE EACH MAN'S CENSURE,
BUT RESERVE THY JUDGMENT.

THIS ABOVE ALL: TO THINE OWN SELF BE TRUE"

HAMLET ACT 1 SCENE 2

"BE ALL THAT YOU ARE". . . . . .LOVE, MOM AND DAD

To Patrick,

From the moment you were born - you have no idea the joy and love you brought into my life. I have watched you grow from a small bundle of joy into a fine strong young man. You have always been a thoughtful, caring, polite, and loving son, BUT oh so stubborn at times. You have always set such high goals for yourself and managed to pull them off. For example, at age 7, the 100 laps at the Pinehurst pool for the cancer fund. You did it and it was amazing to all who watched. The 1993 Thanksgiving H.S. football game with an injured shoulder and you played a terrific game, not knowing at the time it would cost you the 1994 season of baseball and football. Your school work and work outside of school (and, of course, hunting and fishing) . . . . I can go on and on because I am so proud of you.

I also thank you for bringing Karla and precious Stephanie Suzanne into our family. I know that with your strong determination, ALL of the goals and dreams you have for yourself and your new family will come true. Congratulations!!

Love, Mom (Dad, Ken and Cliff too!)

Dear Allen,

. . . You're on your own. And you know what you know.
And YOU are the guy who'll decide where to go.
You'll look up and down streets.
Look 'em over with care.
And some you will say "I don't want to go there."
With your head full of brains
and your shoes full of feet,
You're too smart to go down any not-so-good street . . . .
And will you succeed?
Yes! You will indeed.
(98 and ¾ percent guaranteed.)

ALLISON ❦ Know you what it is to be a child? It is to be something very different from the man of today. It is to have a spirit yet streaming from the waters of baptism; it is to believe in love, to believe in loveliness, to believe in belief; it is to be so little that the elves can reach to whisper in your ear; it is to turn pumpkins into coaches, and mice into horses, lowness into loftiness, and nothing into everything, for each child has its fairy godmother in its soul.

To laugh of often and much;
to win the respect of intelligent people
and the affection of children;
to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends;
to appreciate beauty;
to find the best in others;
to leave the world a bit better
whether by a healthy child,
a garden patch or redeemed social condition;
to know even one life has breathed easier
because you have lived.
This is to have succeeded.

DEAREST SIAN

. . . . At four years of age you wanted to be a cowgirl and ride the range in Texas.

. . . . And through the years your independence and curiosity DID take you for many rides . . . to 46 States of the USA . . . to summer camps from Vermont to Texas . . . to the Sahara Desert . . . to Egypt . . . to the Venezuelan and Brazilian jungles . . . for a year in Uruguay . . . a summer in Ecuador . . . to Spain . . .

. . . . Schoolwork didn't come easy, did it? But, we watched you work . . . and work and plug away at the Kitchen desk. You loved your sports . . . you loved your friends . . . you loved your art . . . and you loved getting your hands on your 'ol' man's' jeep!

. . . . Your Perseverence, your great personality, your MANY interests, your fighting spirit for the underdog and your experience, drive and curiosity now lead you to a new and EXCITING threshold . . . Now step over into new worlds to come. ALL of your family give you our SUPPORT . . . and our LOVE . . . and our CONGRATULATIONS!!!

GOOD LUCK HORNETS!

"It is not the critic who counts, not the man who points out how the strong man stumbled or where the doer of deeds could have done them better."

"The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood, who strives valiantly, who errs and comes short again; who knows the great enthusiasm, the great devotions, and spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement; and who at the worst if he fails, at least fails while doing greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory or defeat."

To Our Parents . . .

We would like to thank our parents, whose special surprises made our senior year the best it could be. We really do appreciate all of your hard work . . . Thank you!

To the Class of 1995:

As we go on our separate ways, we will all remember the memories of high school. Whether they are good or bad times they will remain within us forever. As the Editors of the 1995 Anchor, we would like to wish everybody good luck with their future plans and goals. Also we would like to thank everybody who helped with the 1995 Anchor, we couldn't have done it without you. Good luck, but remember to always enjoy what you do and have fun.

Michelle Anne Ellen

"Congratulations! Today is your day. You're off to Great Places! You're off and away!

You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. Your can steer yourself any direction you choose. You're on your own. And you know what you know. And YOU are the guy who'll decide where to go.

You'll look up and down streets. Look'em over with care. About some you will say, 'I don't choose to go there.' With your head full of brains and your shoes full of feet, you're too smart to go down any not-so-good street.

And you may not find any you'll want to go down. In that case, of course, you'll head straight out of town.

It's opener there in the wide open air.

Out there things can happen and frequently do to people as brainy and footsy as you . . . .

Oh! The places you'll go!

You'll be on your way up! You'll be seeing great sights! You'll join high fliers who soar to high heights . . . .

Except when you don't. Because, sometimes, you won't.

I'm sorry to say so but, sadly, it's true that bang-ups and hang-ups can happen to you . . .

You will come to a place where the streets are not marked. Some windows are lighted. But mostly they're darked . . . . Do you dare to stay out? Do you dare to stay in? How much can you lose? How much can you win?

And if you go in, should you turn left or right . . . or right-and-three quarters? Or, maybe, not quite? Or go around back and sneak in from behind? Simple it's not, I'm afraid you will find, for a mind-maker-upper to make up his mind . . . .

Oh, the places you'll go! There is fun to be done! there are points to be scored. There are games to be won . . . .

On and on you will hike. And I know you'll hike far and face up to your problems whatever they are.

You'll get mixed up, of course, as you already know. You'll get mixed up with many strange birds as you go. So be sure when you step. Step with care and great tact and remember that Life's a Great Balancing Act. Just never forget to be dexterous and deft. And never mix up your right foot with your left.

And will you succeed? Yes! You will, indeed! (98 and 3/4 percent guaranteed.)

KID, YOU'LL MOVE MOUNTAINS!

So . . . be your name Buxbaum or Bixby or Bray or Mordecai Ali Van Allen O'Shea, you're off to Great Places! Today is your day! Your mountain is waiting. So . . . get on your way!"

Oh, the Places You'll Go! by Dr. Seuss

Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein orders his troops to the border of oil-rich Kuwait. The U.S. sends 350 warplanes to the area to support the Kuwaiti forces. By October 11, Hussein orders the withdrawal of most of his forces.

Russian President Boris Yeltsin calls out his poorly trained military to subdue a rebellion in Chechnya, a southern republic the size of Connecticut. Critics accuse Yeltsin of resorting to totalitarian methods of the old communist Soviet regime to keep the shaky Russian Federation unified.

Europe's worst flood in this century kills at least 30 people across Europe. Inland floods caused by melting Alpine snow and relentless rains hit Belgium, France, Germany, and the Netherlands, whose famous dike system begins to crumble late in January 1995 in the face of rampaging rivers. Dutch authorities evacuate 250,000 people from the lowlands.

Camilla Parker Bowles, allegedly Prince Charles' mistress, announces her divorce from her husband, Andrew Parker Bowles. Princess Diana is said to be negotiating a divorce from Charles, who will be free to remarry without giving up the throne—unless unhappy subjects force a referendum on the monarchy.

More than 900 passengers die, 140 are rescued when the Estonia, a 15,500-ton Baltic ferry sinks off the coast of Finland in a violent nighttime storm. The storm's 30-foot waves swamp the ship which lists and sinks in a matter of minutes.

Tipper Gore, wife of U.S. Vice President Al Gore, visits Rwandan refugee camps in Zaire in July. Thousands of refugees, fleeing ethnic conflict in Rwanda, die of cholera, dysentery, and other infectious diseases. Fresh water supplied by the United States military greatly reduces the number of cholera deaths.

After a peasant uprising in Chiapas and two major political murders, Mexico gets a new president. Ernesto Zedillo, an economist, assumes office only to face a stockmarket crash, a ruined economy, and a loss of international confidence in the wake of the North American Free Trade Agreement.

Conservative religious groups and those who believe in individual rights clash over issues of education for women and family planning at the U.N. International Conference on Population and Development in Cairo, Egypt, September 5.

When their Army helicopter accidentally strays into North Korea in December, Chief Warrant Officers Bobby Wayne Hall and David Hilemon are shot down by the communists. Washington does not admit to espionage as the North Koreans want, but negotiates for survivor Bobby Hall's release by expressing its sincere regret over the intrusion.

Palestine Liberation Organization chairman Yasir Arafat returns to Palestine in July 1994 after 27 years of exile in Tunisia. Arafat kisses the ground in the Gaza Strip, now a Palestinian autonomous zone under the terms of a 1993 peace accord with Israel.
